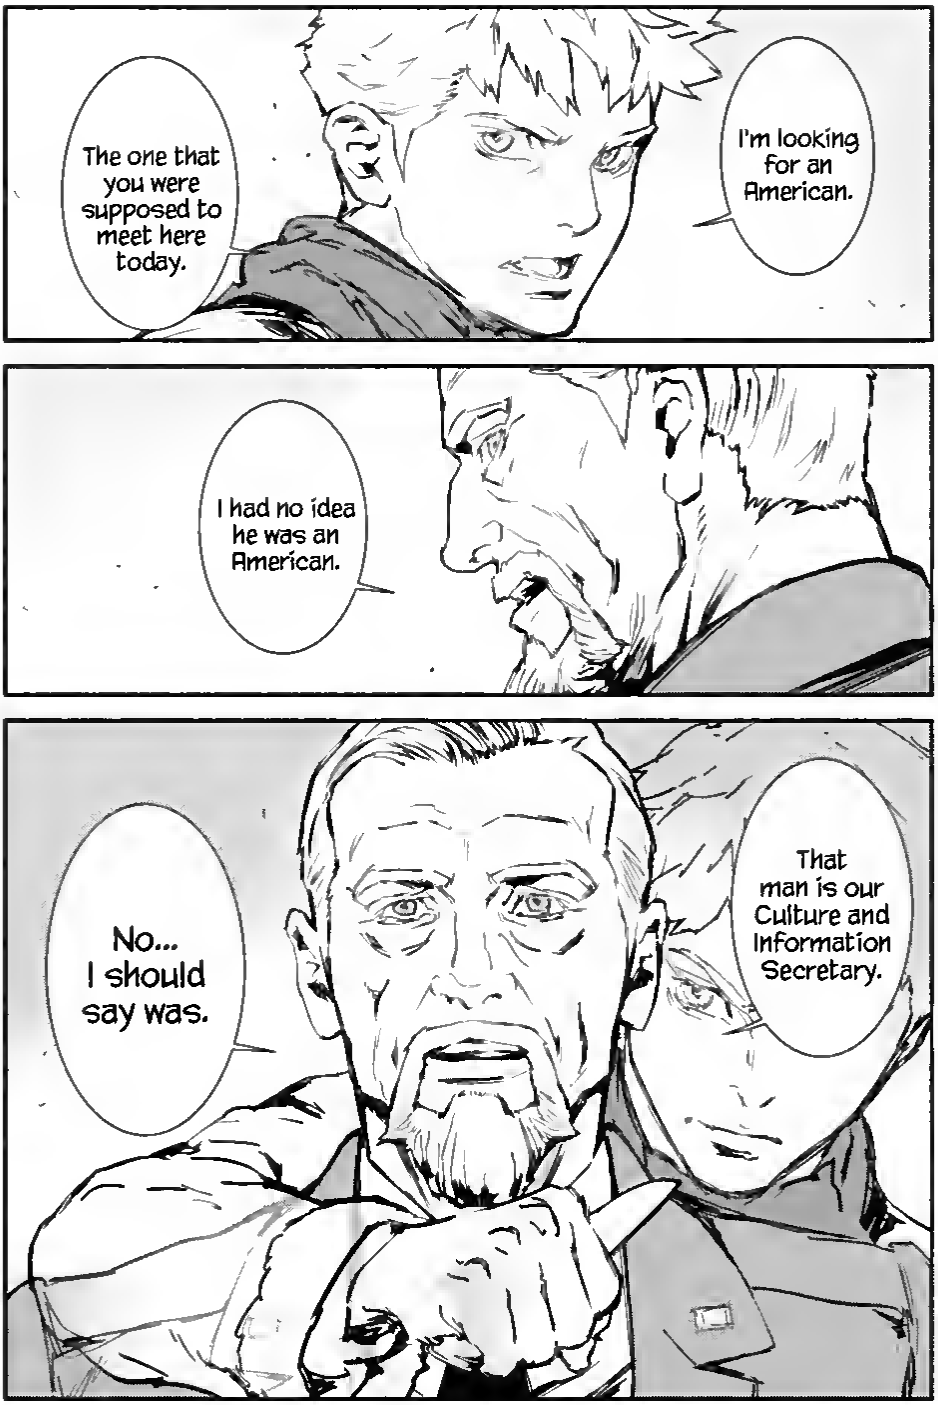
This country is filled with the stench of gunpowder and dead bodies.
08
Back when this region still appeared like a county there was a man who was once Brigadier General
No, it's no longer a "country."
That man is our target and the source of this stench.

And the source lies before my very eyes.
However...

It's objective A by himself...
The American, objective B, isn't there!
What's going on, Rockwell!

Mr. President ...
That man frequently travels throughout the country to avoid assassination.
It was only pure luck we got the information that he would be at the church.
If we miss this opportunity, we have no idea when we will be able to get rid of the Brigadier General who continues these genocides.
Let's at least finish this man for sure.
Hm...

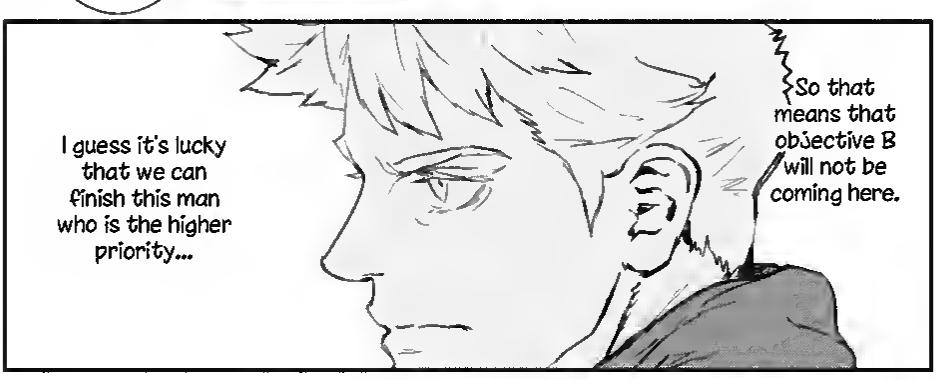
If you scream, or even simply move an inch, I will kill you.
Alright?



I'm looking for an American.
The one that you were supposed to meet here today.
I had no idea he was an American.
That man is our Culture and Information Secretary.
No... I should say was.

Did you kill him?
No... But he said he was leaving this place.
That was a few days ago.

It was too sudden, so I asked him his reasons.
And today, he was supposed to tell me his story but,
he simply passed a messenger a message.



So that means that objective B will not be coming here.
I guess it's lucky that we can finish this man who is the higher priority...

Such a well spoken man, giving only one sentence...
That's what was written on our government's official paper.
"I've done everything I can do here."
What did the message say?
Our government ?
Official paper? What kind of bullshit is that.
There are only armed forces vying for authority.
And you are one of the worst ones from the bunch, committing genocides and the like.
There is no government here.
Genocide!?
This is a battle against the horrid terrorists that attack our government and civilians.
How dare you sully our wishes for peace with such words.

The "government" where you work as the "Prime Minister" is not recognized by any multi-national entities,
And it is you yourself who goes around killing your civilians.
What do multi-national entities have to do with this!?
Those evil imperialists who stomp on our culture and laugh at the idea of self-determination...
Towards our country that has coexisted with immigrants in peace for a long time...

Tolerance and multicultural policies used to be the beauty of our country.
Just why... Did we... End up like this...
Why...
It's all because of the terrorists who were born from intolerance.
No... That's wrong...
Yes... It's the terrorists.
...Such a thing would have been dealt with easily by the police force without bringing the army into the capital...
Why... Why did it end up like this...
What's the point in regretting things now.
Either way, you're going to hell.

That's right...
I will go to hell...
But you're misunderstanding me.
This isn't a confession.
I...
don't understand.
This country was so beautiful just two years ago...
Why did it become such a wasteland...
What are you saying?
It's a war you started...
I... started ...?

You...
Why did you kill them?
I...
Why did I kill them?
Why?
I don't get it!
ガチ ガチ ガチ
This man..
Why?
Answer.
Tell me!
Shut up!
Is he insane ...!?
Answer!

Please, tell me!
I... Why did I kill them!?
Just shut up!
Why did I kill them!?
I said shut up!
Why...

Alex...!?
